Birmingham—I would like to give a shout-out to Covington
Supervisor Alisha Edwards.
She did a wonderful job with cleaning up behind the meet and greet and the concerns for the school on 8/25/2021. I would also like to shout out to Shawndra Tillman for stepping up and owning the lead role filling in at Greenfield Elementary School. She has done a wonderful job with keeping in touch with the Principal and office staff. -Chelsie-

Mt Pleasant—Austin: Our day time custodian is awesome! You can tell that he takes pride in his work, and is so quick to respond to anything that we need. I am so appreciative for all that he's done for us in the last year or so. He's leaps and bounds beyond any custodian we have had since I have been here!

Cedar Springs—Blake: Blake had to vacuum all of the classrooms and the hallways this morning. Please give him a WOW Award. He is just now able to start his actual duties. We appreciate all his hard work!

Paw Paw—Tom Nelson: Thank you so much for caring about me and asking about my family!

Lakeview—Matthew Cole: Jamie Smith (Maintenance) would like to give Matthew Cole a WOW award for going above and beyond to help him clean up and take care of a mess from a leaking ac unit.

Ionia—Tracy wireman, David w., Cindy lake, Mike wellman, Andrew Badder Jr, Darlene Glassner: Great job, hard workers!

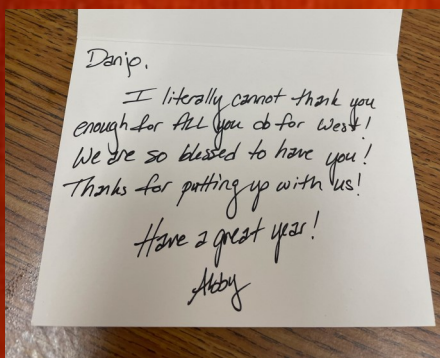

Lakeview—Elizabeth Brace: Allyson Marvel (athletic trainer) would like to give Elizabeth Brace a WOW award for going above and beyond by folding her towels for her that she uses for the athletic team.

5/3rd Owosso—Lucy Rench: Always does a great job and is friendly!

Byron Center—Dan Blanchard: He received a card from the principle!

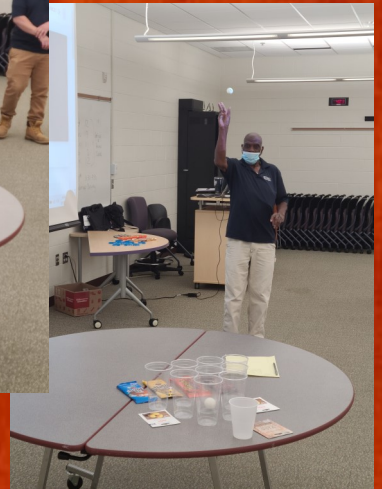

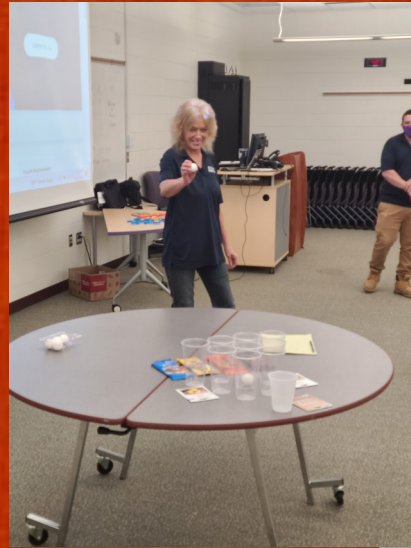

Mt Pleasant—Jeffrey Welsh: Thanks for doing an amazing job with the water leak clean up!

Tri County Welcome Back!

Lakeview Battle Creek Refresher!

Hastings Staff got some
